Knit Cro Pro Club News

by Mrs. Dorothy Jones

Kathy Faryon's idea for a potluck lunch was a huge success. Maryann Slicker acted as coordinator. The food was delicious but the companionship was priceless. Everyone had a good time.

Maryann Slicker donated 15 blankets to Wolfson's Hospital. For the final donations for this year, the following items were added: Leisla Sansom donated her first crochet scarf. Fred Hoener donated 3 hat and scarf sets. Lynn Gissendaner donated 3 scarves and a hat and scarf set. Maryann Slicker donated 2 scarves. Sharon Toth donated a hat and a scarf. Total donations to St. Paul United Methodist Church for November 5th are: 1 afghan, 45 neck scarves, 3 hats and 8 hat and scarf sets.

I sincerely thank all the members for their hard work and donations this past year.

Jacksonville Senior Games Champ

Riverton Tower resident Fred Hoener competed in Swimming competition at the 2019 Jacksonville Senior Games. In the men's 70-74 age group, Fred took first place in 6 events.

Celebrate the Holidays

written by Angie Carter

2019 has really gone fast
The holidays are almost here
Shopping season will not last Rushing around is very near
Making a list can be fun
Goodies for all to share
Visiting Santa must be done
Family Reunions we must bear
Cooking and baking ready to dine
Be charitable to those who have nothing
Happiness for all is a good sign
Helping people is really something
Celebrate your holiday this December
Riverton residents, listen to me
Make this year one to remember
Joy and Peace will follow, you'll see.
Christmas – Dec. 25 through Jan. 5
Hanukkah – Dec. 22 through Dec. 30
Kwanzaa – Dec. 26 through Jan. 1.
